yard secretary and the coarf, and copp, Rud-yard secretary and of the association, numbering eighteen pieces, with Capt G. L. Rau as leader, and Mr. John P. Spanier director, were in attend-ance and enlivened the meeting with the perform-ance of some excellent music.

The business for which the meeting was called was the consideration of the revised constitution. A lengthy discussion took place, and the question ned until the next meeting.

ROUGH ON THE BOYS.—Many of the juve-niles of this city seem not to be aware that the fol-lowing is the law in regard to the playing of ball and bandy on the public streets:

"And be it enacted that it shall not be lawful and he is enacted that it shall not be lawful for any person or persons to play the game of football, or any other game with a ball, bandy, or any game by which a ball, stone, or other substance, is struck or propelled by a stick or cane, in any avenue, alley, or street in the city of Washington, under a penalty of not less than one dollar for each and every offence.

BANK BAIL.—To-day at the usual time and place, a match comes off between the first nines of the National and Olympic clubs of this city. As Williams has resigned his position as pitcher of the club, and Berthrong, on account of an injured hand, is compelled to play short stor, the Olympics after them selves that the present "champions of the South" will be obliged to exercise unusual skill to defeat them. On Tuesday a game comes off on the grounds of the National between two closely matched clubs, the Unions and the Jeffersons.

Grand Largeny.—Jefferson Lucas and George W. Barnes, two colored boys, were arrested on Saturday night by Officer Coomes, of the Fourth ward, for stealing a quantity of lead pips from the junk shop of Mr. Conroy, at the corner of Second and B streets. The officer learned that they committed the larceny several days ago, and caught them on Saturday evening while they were endeavoring to sell the atolen property. They were locked up for a hearing.

PRESENTED.—The Grand Jury of this District have made a presentment to the Criminal Court, of Sanford Conver alias J. A. Dunham, charging him with porjury before the Judiciary Committee of the House of Representatives, and the Military Commission for the trial of the conspirators. Conover was brought to this city last week by a New York officer, and is confined in jail in default of ball.

Mears. Teknor & Fields beg to announce that they have arranged with the summent engraver and palater.
Mr. Wm. B. Marshall, for the publication of his line-sugraved portrait of Abraham Lincola.
This engraving is after Mr. Marshall's own painting, and is expected in pure line. It is the largest head ever sugraved in this manner, and is by far the best sugraving aver exceeded in America, and will take its place among the few great works which lineal art has given to the world.

The publishers, however, do not put this portrait of Mr. Lincoln before the public simply as a face work of Art, for it possesses the still greater value of being a set, for the passesses the still greater value of being a

Mr. Lincoln before the public simply as a fine work of art, for it possesses the still greater value of being a true likeness of the Martyred President, representing him in the best aspects, and in a manner so different from all others that it may be considered essentially Mr. Marshall's own. The publishers believe it will be accepted as the standard portrait of Mr. Lincoln, and as grounds for that belief they invite attention to the hearty commendations it has received from persons who knew Mr. Lincoln intimately, all expressing theroogh satisfaction with it in this regard.
